

Thanks to Reviewers

The editors of Clinical Images and Medical Case Reports wish to express their deepest gratitude and appreciation to all the reviewers and experts in clinical, medicine, and related specialties who have generously supported our Editorial Board. Your invaluable contributions in reviewing manuscripts have significantly enhanced the quality of our journal.

We understand that the process of reviewing can be demanding and time-consuming, and we truly hope that it has not only advanced the journal's objectives but also supported your own research endeavors.

Thank you once again for your dedication and expertise.
